Pictures in Real Life.

One more picture! See that middle aged yet old, decrepit man. Life is swift and fleeting to him. His friends travel fast, he must keep pace with them. His brain must be active, his thoughts must be brilliant; care and sleeplessness and overstrained nervousness must not restrain him, hence the brandy and morphia must aid—and what is the result? His life of three score and ten is lived in a score and a half. He falls. His brilliant meteoric light goes out suddenly in darkness.
His friends would cover his sin with a mantle of charity. They speak of his splendid genius cut off before its fullness of days had been lived; of what a noble soul he was; of what a loss his death has brought upon the community, and upon the world! Valn babblers! But for them he would have been a great man. He had blessed the pearls of his life, and he had made even existence in the cup of a brilliant reputation for them! They standing like Marie Antoinette, had encouraged him to go on, and he had robbed the world of its genius! By no means. They rob the world of their Halle and Ludlow, too well testify to its truth.Innumerable other instances might cordance with survey previously made.

it will be graded at Town's expense.] Ordinance passed licensing bowling alleys.
A committee was appointed to select and purchase ground from which to obtain earth and gravel for grading purses.

Committee of the New Church.
The new church edifice of the Seventh Day Adventists is completed and we think we do not exaggerate by saying it is by all odds the neatest and most comfortable house of worship in this place.
It is arranged with a vestibule at the entrance, from either side of which an aisle extends the whole length of the church with open pews on each side capable of seating comfortably about 300 persons. An excellent job of plastering was done on the walls and ceiling. The pulpit is extremely neat in design and finish and is beautifully while the sides are laid with carpeting. The seats are painted oak and grained oak and walnut color. A large chandelier with six jets is suspended from the centre, with two burners just from the wall at the back of the pulpit, and another light the entrance. The exterior of the edifice presents a handsome appearance, being well painted, and is surmounted by a belfry in which hangs a sweet-toned bell to admonish fallen man that this is the house of God. A picket fence has been put up in front of the church, and a plank walk laid from the gate to the door. Aside from the spiritual good that may be accomplished here, the new church of the Seventh-Day Adventists is an ornament and a credit to our town, and a lasting monument to the liberality and enterprise of those of our citizens who have been instrumental in its erection.

Elsewhere will be found a notice of dedication services. Elder Loughbough arrived on Thursday evening.

M. E. Aid Society Social.
The ladies of the M. E. Church Aid Society will give their next social at the residence of Mr. J. M. Garoutte, on next Wednesday evening, March 6th.
All are invited. In connection with the above an oyster supper will be served to such as may desire it.

Renovating.—The Christian Church is undergoing a thorough renovation—an excellent idea. Of all public buildings, churches should be made the neatest as well as the most comfortable and attractive.

Dentistry.—Dr. C. R. Götter, as will be seen by his card in this paper, has established himself in Woodland for the practice of his profession.

Cacheville Correspondence.
CACHVILLE, Feb. 22nd, 1873.
EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—It grieves me sorely to make public a complaint which has been noticed by few, and yet many are interested in it. We have no parsonage here; it is about two and one-half miles from the Church. This, perhaps, is not noticed by many, but it should be noticed by all, and steps should be taken by our residents to provide a house for our minister, near by.
Our present parson came here and immediately went to work to repair the Church, which everybody knows was in a very bad condition. He accomplished the task by a long and steady course of perseverance—such a one as should gain him a deep and lasting share in their affections; but it seems as though they cannot realize the blessing which he has bestowed upon them. Because he makes no complaint himself, is no reason why he should not be better cared for. He is a gentleman at heart and in appearance, and is willing to submit to any burden cast on him by his fellow brethren. It cannot be very pleasant living out in the country alone. If he had a family it would be a different case altogether.
Then, perhaps, country life would be preferable; but in his present situation it does not look very well. Therefore I think it would be advisable for the citizens of Cacheville to provide a pa-ronage within the limits of their town, or at least sufficiently near so as to enable the parson to reach the pulpit without traveling through two or three miles of mud and water.

Planting trees for wood is a subject which should be discussed by more able pens than mine; but, perhaps this may cause the people to think of the matter and to take it under advisement.
It has become evident that our once abundant forests cannot much longer supply the inhabitants with wood. Ten years ago, where our cultivated fields now are, there was one vast forest of timber. In fact, nearly one-half of our land was not cultivated, simply from the excess of timber. Many killed and burned their timber to prepare the land for farming. At that time, at the least estimate, there was twice the amount of timber there now is in Yolo and adjoining counties. From this fact we derive the knowledge that in ten years from now the woods will be swept from our fields by the woodman's ax.
Coal, then, will of course be substituted, but it cannot be used to the same advantage as wood. We shall then become "bond slaves" to the coal merchants of the coast. Therefore it would be prudent to prepare for this mighty calamity. A few acres planted with trees will yield fortunes a few years hence. Every Farmers' Club in the county and State would do well to take up this subject and investigate it thoroughly. It is plain, and needs attention.

The flag was hoisted last Saturday in honor of Washington's birthday.
By the way, we can boast of the highest flag-pole in this county—112 feet.
The trial of Keeth vs. Diggs took place on Saturday—undecided.

Mr. Wood's Benefit Concert.
The fact that the benefit concert for the benefit of our townman Mr. J. M.
Wood, blind violinist, has been arranged to take place in Washington Hall, (which has recently been renovated and very much improved), on Friday evening next, March 1st, will be the concert of the season and without doubt one of the very best entertainments ever given in Woodland.
Mr. Wood will be assisted by all our best local musical talent and also by several ladies and gentlemen from other parts of the State, among whom we may mention Miss Emma Kinloch and Miss Adelle Streeter, celebrated vocalists, and Miss Ella Clinton, a first-class pianist, all of whom will be nished on the shortest notice.

SODA, SANSAPARILLA AND ICE.
S. Kaufman has made arrangements for the necessary machinery, etc., for manufacturing Soda and Sansaparilla for Woodland and vicinity. He has the agency for that healthy drink, Napa Soda, and also for the best Ice, viz., Sitka; all of which will be furnished on the shortest notice.

AN ENTERTAINING BUSINESS.—Mr. L.
Deyfus has rented and is fitting up the brick store of Mr. Ogburn which he intends to open as a wholesale liquor house in a few days. He expects to supply local dealers throughout the county at rates that will be entirely satisfactory.

NEW PAINTING FIRM.—Messrs.
Engman & Graham have leased the painting department of Elliott's carriage manufactory and are prepared to do all kinds of painting in the best and most satisfactory manner. Their card appears in another column.

TEACHER'S EXAMINATION.—The regular quarterly examination for teachers will commence at the Court House on Wednesday next, March 5th.

NEGLECT EVERYTHING, or anything except a cough, cold, croup, or anything that can be cured by the use of one of the many bottles of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. These pills will cure all the above troubles, and will also cure all the troubles of the blood, such as skin eruptions, etc.

CRYSTAL WEDDING.—Wednesday evening last was the fifteenth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs.
M. W. Howell, of this place—the crystal wedding. A large number—some four score of their friends assembled at their residence, early in the evening, taking the happy couple entirely by surprise. The occasion was one of the most pleasant that has occurred in many a day. Lots of crystal presents found their way thither—enough of both useful and ornamental, we imagine, to last a lifetime. Some of the ladies provided a really excellent supper. Mr. and Mrs. Howell and all present were very happy, and the party did not break up till after midnight. When any more crystal weddings occur "may we be there to see."

COUNTY COURT.—On March 1st, Feb.
24th, the following cases came up: Ogburn vs. Brogan—Motion to dismiss action sustained; Brogan vs. Ogburn—Judgment for return of all property but bedding, and costs; Dinwiddie vs. Jackson—Motion to dismiss action sustained; McLaughlin vs. Lawson—Motion to set aside judgment granted and sustained and leave granted to file briefs within five days—stay of proceedings until motion is decided; Flint vs. Glascock—Demurrer to amend complaint overruled, 20 days allowed for defendant to answer; Snyder vs.
Webber—Judgment for return of property and costs. Adjourned. Next term, Monday, April 7th.

AN IMPORTANT INDUSTRY.—Messrs.
B. & F. Jackson have made arrangements for manufacturing Jackson's patent elevator and self-feeder, for threshing machines, on quite a large scale, in connection with Sney & Cas-len's machine shops and planing mills, and intend to have a large number ready for the coming harvest. These useful attachments proved very successful last year, and the demand for them exceeds the supply. The Messrs.
Jackson intend also to branch out into other kinds of work, including general repairing. They are young men, of capacity and energy, and we expect to see a large business spring up from this beginning.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY BALL.—
The ball of Shikyou The I. O. M., of Davisville, on Friday evening of last week, was a success in every particular.
Some seventy or eighty couples participated in the dance, among them quite a large party from Sacramento and others from Woodland. Messrs. Wood, Simpson and Brown, assisted by Mr. Ellis, of Auburn, furnished excellent music.
The ball was expensively and tastefully decorated. A nice supper was served at Marden's Hotel, which was crowded to its utmost capacity, and yet all were abundantly supplied. We understand the Tribe cleared about $150 in coin besides all the enjoyment.

TURN VERIN HALL.—On Tuesday evening next, March 4th, a grand ball will be given by the Woodland Turn Verin Association in their new hall on Court street, the occasion being the second anniversary of their organization. Their fine new hall has been completed and is ready to receive the public. All who desire to aid the Association will avail themselves of this opportunity. The music will be furnished by Wood & Simpson's Band. Tickets only one dollar.

RAINFALL.—Below is the rainfall for the season, according to the rain gauge kept at the County Hospital:

For the week ending February 28th,

AN ENJOYABLE OCCASION.—The party given on Monday evening last by Messrs. Church & Jones was well attended and everything passed off pleasantly. There were quite a number of ladies and gentlemen present from Sacramento, Davisville and Knights Landing. Central Hall was full enough to hold the party.
